BURLINGTON STUDENT CHOSEN TO BE UM ADVOCATE

MISSOULA--

Season Kyle of Burlington, Wis., recently became a member of The University of Montana-Missoula Advocates.

UM Advocates is an 80-member group of professional student leaders who assist the University with volunteer activities such as UM Days, orientations, recruiting and registration. Advocates serve as campus hosts for Homecoming, alumni relations and foundation events. They also represent UM at out-of-state college fairs.

UM Advocates was one of the first student leadership groups founded in the United States. It has been a forerunner in progressive student organizations at other colleges and universities across North America.

Kyle, the daughter of Sandi Hurray, is a junior majoring in broadcast journalism. She is a 1995 graduate of Frenchtown (Mont.) High School.
